

Our Mission

Building School Capacity to Serve All Students

The mission of the CENTER FOR EFFECTIVE SCHOOLS is to build capacity in schools for serving children with, or at-risk for developing, emotional and behavioral disorders. This mission is accomplished through training, consultation, new model program development, and applied research.

Key Personnel

Barry McCurdy, Ph.D., NCSP
Director

Kristin Sawka, Ph.D., NCSP
Assistant Director

Jennifer Jeffrey, Ph.D.
Training and Consulting Specialist

Amanda Lannie, Ph.D.
Training and Consulting Specialist

Matthew Wildrick, B.A.
Research Technician

Contact Information

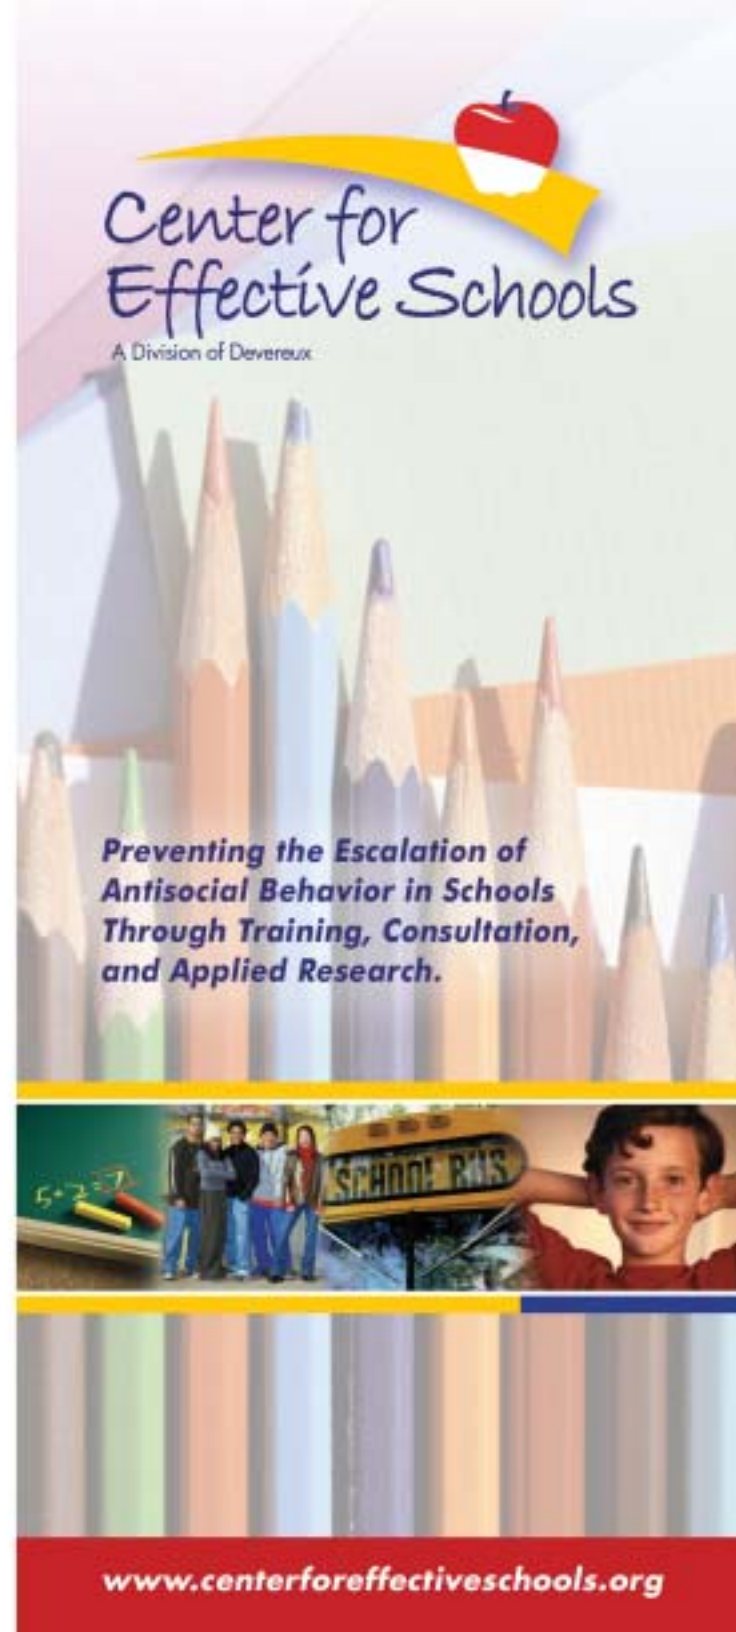

For additional information, questions, and requests for proposals, please contact:

Dr. Barry McCurdy
Center for Effective Schools
2012 Renaissance Blvd.
King of Prussia, PA 19406
Phone: 610-542-3123
Fax: 610-542-3087
bmccurdy@devereux.org

Copyright © 2005 Devereux

www.centerforeffectiveschools.org

Our Services

Student-focused Consultation Services

Consultation services are offered to school teams and family members to address the needs of students with a variety of concerns, including:

- School adjustment and conduct problems
- Emotional and behavioral disorders
- Attention-deficit hyperactivity disorder (ADHD)
- Learning problems

Organizational Development and Technical Assistance

CES consultants have the knowledge and experience to assist your school in attaining the highest degree of educational excellence through the development and implementation of evidence-based practices:

- Strengthening Emotional Support Services™ - a comprehensive training program for teachers of students with emotional/behavioral disorders.
- School-Wide Positive Behavior Intervention and Support - systems-level training and consultation designed to enhance disciplinary and instructional practices across the school.

- Toolbox of Parent Skills™ - a school-based parent training program designed to provide parents with a methodology for encouraging positive behavior in their youngsters.
- "Building Good Behavior" Game™ - paraprofessional (and professional) staff development designed to effectively address behavioral concerns in non-classroom settings, including the cafeteria and school yard.

Implementation with Integrity

Be assured that all Student-focused Consultation and Organizational Development and Technical Assistance activities of the CES are implemented with the highest degree of integrity. CES professionals employ an applied research framework, utilizing data-based decision-making, to ensure the highest quality of service delivery to customers. We are committed to the success of your school.

One Day Workshops

The CES offers a number of one-day workshops to meet the training needs of your school or educational organization. All CES training workshops are designed to meet clear objectives, are skill-based, and are delivered through an "active training" format. One-day workshops include:

- Conducting a Functional Behavioral Assessment
- Behavioral Interventions: Advanced Strategies
- Supervising the Emotional Support Classroom
- Creating a Positive Classroom Environment
- The Missing Link: Self-Management Interventions
- Behavioral Consultation in the Schools
- Basic Behavior Management for the Classroom
- Fundamentals of Parent Training
- School-wide Positive Behavior Support: Preventing Disruptive Behavior
- Interventions for Students with Attention-Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder
- Interventions for Students with Conduct Problems
- Effective Instructional Strategies
- Developing Effective Behavior Support Plans
- What is that "Response-to-Intervention?" Everything You Wanted to Know and Then Some
- Paraprofessional Series: Instructional Strategies for Paraprofessionals
- Administrator Series: Data-based Decision Making for Creating Safer Schools

